Services

The Department of Economic Security (DES) is the safety net agency for the State of Arizona. As one of the largest agencies in state government, DES serves more than 2 million Arizonans annually through more than 40 programs that address the social and economic needs of those we serve. DES's more than 8,000 employees serve Arizonans from Phoenix to Tucson, Yuma to Flagstaff and from Douglas to Page. The agency's tagline: "Your Partner for a Stronger Arizona" is intended to frame the work efforts toward growing the capacity of Arizonans in need of safety net services, and where possible, reduce their dependency on those vital supports.

Fraud, Waste, and Abuse

Defining Fraud, Waste, and Abuse (FWA)

Fraud: An intentional deception or misrepresentation made by a person with the knowledge that the deception could result in some unauthorized benefit to themselves or some other person. It includes any act that constitutes fraud under applicable Federal or State law, as defined in 42 CFR 455.2

Waste: Over-utilization or inappropriate utilization of services, misuse of resources, or practices that result in unnecessary costs to the Medicaid Program.

Abuse: Provider practices that are inconsistent with sound fiscal, business, or medical practices, and result in an unnecessary cost to the AHCCCS program, or in reimbursement for services that are not medically necessary or that fail to meet professionally recognized standards for health care, noncompliance with licensure standards, misuse of billing numbers, or misuse or abuse of billing privileges. It also includes beneficiary practices that result in unnecessary cost to the AHCCCS Program [42 CFR 455.2].

Examples of Fraud, Waste, and Abuse (FWA)

Examples of FWA:

- Billing for services not provided
  - Misrepresenting services provided
    - i.e. who provided service, who received service, where service occurred, what service was provided, etc.
  - Providing services that are not medically necessary
    - Health care provider ordering excessive diagnostic testing
    - Falsifying assessments, medical documentation, etc.

Fraud, Waste, and Abuse (FWA)

Things to keep in mind...

- All team members must accurately report the member needs
  - The Qualified Vendors and service providers (including family members who are paid providers) must keep up-to-date with required certifications, trainings, etc.
    - CANNOT bill for services that are provided without current certifications and/or trainings
  - Everyone must follow Person-Centered Service Plan (PCSP) and/or Individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP)
    - Pay special attention to Service Authorizations (outlines services and frequency of services)***

NOT Medicaid Fraud, Waste, and Abuse

Some “other fraud” types and where to report:

- Fraud and/or misuse of Social Security funds (SSI and/or SSDI)
    - Report to <https://oig.ssa.gov/> or 1-800-269-0271
  - Fraud and/or misuse of the following benefits can be reported to Department of Economic Security (DES) at <https://fraudreferralexternal.azdes.gov/>
    - Cash Assistance/TANF
    - Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP)
    - Low Income Household Water Assistance Program (LIHWAP)
    - Nutrition Assistance (SNAP)/Food Stamps
    - Unemployment Benefits

Applicable Laws and Regulations

Federal False Claims Act (FCA)

- A federal law that makes it a crime for any person or organization to knowingly make a false record or file a false claim regarding any federal health care program, which includes any plan or program that provides health benefits, whether directly, through insurance or otherwise, which is funded directly, in whole or in part, by the United States Government or any state healthcare system.
- Includes having actual knowledge that a claim is false or acting with “reckless disregard” as to whether a claim is false.

Liabilities for violating FCA:

Three times the damage
amount defrauded

No less than $5,000 and no more than $11,000

Applicable Laws and Regulations cont'd

The Stark Law

- The Stark Law is a healthcare fraud and abuse law that prohibits physicians from referring patients for certain designated health services paid for by Medicare and Medicaid to any entity in which they have a “financial relationship.”
  - The federal government interprets the term “financial relationship” broadly to include any direct or indirect ownership or investment interest by the referring physician, as well as any financial interests held by any of the physician’s immediate family members.

Penalties for violating Stark Law:

Denial of payment	Refunds of collected amount	Penalty up to $15,000 for each bill	Penalty up to $100,000 for each arrangement	Fine of 3 times the amount improperly collected
-------------------	-----------------------------	--------------------------------------	--	---

The Anti-Kickback Statute

- The federal Anti-Kickback Statute is a healthcare fraud and abuse statute that prohibits the exchange of remuneration—which the statute defines broadly as anything of value—for referrals for services that are payable by a federal program, which, in the context of healthcare providers, is Medicare and Medicaid.
- Anti-Kickback violations also usually constitute violations of the False Claims Act, meaning that Anti-Kickback investigations can likewise result in fraud liability.

Penalties:

- The Anti-Kickback Statute is a criminal statute, but it provides both criminal and civil penalties for violations.
  - The criminal penalties include fines of up to $25,000- and five-years' imprisonment.
  - The Office of the Inspector General (“OIG”) for the Department of Health and Human Services (“HHS”) can pursue civil penalties of up to $50,000 per violation plus three times the amount of any government overpayment.

Whistleblowers

- Whistleblowers are protected under the False Claims Act Section 3730 (h). This protection is for...
    - Any employee who is discharged, demoted, harassed, or otherwise discriminated against because of unlawful acts reported by the employee, in furtherance of an action under the Act is entitled to any relief necessary to make the employee whole.
  - The WPA of 1989 protects federal employees from retaliatory action for voluntary disclosing information about dishonest or illegal activities occurring at a government agency.

Whistleblowers cont'd

- The Whistleblower Protection Enhancement Act (WPEA) of 2012 provides confidentiality and protection from retaliation to federal, former employees, or applicants who report allegations.
  - WPA Protections provide compensatory damages, double back pay, and job reinstatement.

Consequences of Medicaid Fraud, Waste, and Abuse

Exclusion from Federal Healthcare Programs

Loss of Provider License

Criminal Conviction/Fines

Civil Money Penalties

Civil Prosecution

Imprisonment
